

A one day Kids Enrichment Camp was held on the second day at Crazy Horse. Packing into a one day camp what HB has previously spread over a week was tricky at best. The Crazy Horse staff were fantastic in arranging classroom space and scheduling the activities. In one day, the team accomplished classes in science, dental health, arts and crafts, music and story telling, health and safety. Of course making slime in science was the favorite, but became a real seems small, but to each of them it means the world.

Burnt Swamp Association WMU in eastern NC sent 218 Christmas bags containing mittens, shirts, toboggans and toys to children at Crazy Horse. Thank you to the ladies who worked hard to put these gifts together.

Julian Bear Runner

Julian Bear Runner was elected Tribal President of Pine Ridge Reservation in November. Julian was a Global Children Outreach participant. Heart Bridge was born out of GCO in 2007.

He came to Charlotte as a youth and stayed with Carol and Pete Young several summers. His life has been challenging as he helped raise his younger siblings. He became a vital part of his community. While at the Standing Rock protest against the pipeline, he met a lawyer who encouraged him to run for president. We are so proud of him.

challenge when slime pro Megan Locklear became ill. Other team members attempted the recipe unsuccessfully and it truly became a science experiment. Nurse Mary Baer used "Operation" games to teach anatomy and health. The kids loved it. North Carolina long leaf pine cone decorating was also a "big" hit.

Please join us in Heart Bridge Pine Ridge Trip 2019 for an adventure of a lifetime.

Winter Coat Drive

Thank you to all HB friends who contributed to providing coats to 230 students at Crazy Horse Elementary. Coats for 105 children at Allen Youth Center were also shipped. Super shoppers, Carol Young and Ann Hagans, bought and shipped coats by October, 2018. What a blessing when an early blizzard hit SD. The winter and spring blizzards have been harsh in the northwest. Supplying warmth for these few Julian is currently serving as the 43rd President of the Oglala Sioux Tribe, the second youngest Tribal President in Oglala Sioux Tribal history. President Bear Runner has overcome many odds, yet is inspired to bring in a new generation of leadership to the Lakota people's survival and dignity.

He is a U.S. Army veteran and proudly served as an Infantryman from 2008 to 2011. He was also employed at the Oglala Sioux Tribe Clinical Lab as a Lab Technician prior to taking office in the political arena. He also worked for the Oglala Sioux Tribe Department of Public Safety, as well as the Oglala Sioux Tribe Ambulance Service.

He has been dealt a heavy challenge to begin his term.
